

If parents are dissatisfied with the outcome of their request for Access Arrangements, they should contact the School Principal (Head of Centre) who will request the evidence gathered by the SENco. This evidence will be reviewed against current JCQ regulation and parents will be advised of the final decision within 20 working days of receipt of the appeal.